

NEW M'AULIFFE WITNESS MISSING.

Peter Hand, Arraigned Immediately After the "Dummy," Has Now Disappeared.

M'AULIFFE REWARD DOUBLED!

The First $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 to the man who personated James McAuliffe in the West Fifty-fourth street court on the morning of Feb. 16 last, to establish that fact, or to any person or persons who shall produce the man who personated McAuliffe at the address and time mentioned and prove that he is the man who personated McAuliffe.

The World will further guarantee to such "dummy" absolute protection and immunity from arrest, prosecution or persecution. The World has the assurances of District Attorney Jerome that this man shall not be prosecuted nor molested if he comes forward and tells the truth.

The Second $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 more to the person or persons who shall furnish it with information that shall lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the murder of James McAuliffe, who was found dying in front of No. 863 Sixth avenue on Sunday morning, Feb. 16, 1932.

An important witness in the McAuliffe case is missing. His name is Peter Hand. He has not been seen since the coroner's inquest and has never been questioned by any one but the police outside of the inquest. His family professes ignorance of his whereabouts.

For the first time in years Hand, a bartender and sporting man, has not been seen around his customary haunts. The Eighth avenue section of the Tenderloin for five weeks.

On the night of the McAuliffe arrest Hand was also arrested, and by the same policeman, Reddy, who took in McAuliffe. Hand was very drunk when Reddy took him to the stationhouse.

Hand appeared in the West Side Police Court the next morning with his bondsman. He had employed a lawyer, Joseph Rosenback. Reddy arraigned Hand just after McAuliffe was arraigned. The two men stood side by side, rode together in a patrol wagon to the court and when they stood before the Magistrate Hand was sober, or reasonably so.

Hand could tell if a dummy was substituted for the real McAuliffe if he could be shown the picture of McAuliffe printed in the morning World to-day. But he cannot be found. He could not be found when the McAuliffe case came up originally. For a full week he remained away from his home, and when he came back he said he had been to the West Forty-seventh street police station and talked to the police.

At his home this morning his mother said she did not know where he was. She had seen him but once since the McAuliffe mystery engaged public attention. He has not written her and she says it is very strange, as previously he has always kept in touch with her when away from home.

Lawyer Rosenback, who appeared for Hand, said to-day that he had not seen his client since the morning he was arraigned in the police court.

Most of the policemen in the West Forty-seventh street precinct knew Hand. All of the plain clothes men knew him. He can tell if a dummy was substituted for McAuliffe in the Police Court. For the second time since James McAuliffe died The Evening World asks:

Where is Peter Hand and why is he in hiding?

GAYNOR MAY SEND COL. DIKE TO JAIL.

DECIDES AGAIN HE IS NOT THE SHERIFF.

Likely to Sign the Order To-Morrow Unless the Office Is Surrendered to Guden.

Unless Norman S. Dike turns over to Charles Guden all the records of the Sheriff's office of Kings County he will be locked up in the Raymond Street Jail.

This much has been decided by Justice Gaynor, although no order to that effect has been signed by him. It will be signed in the morning.

Jerome Wernberg, counsel for Guden, delivered to Justice Gaynor a draft for an order this morning which he wanted the justice to sign. It was to the effect that until Dike turned over the papers he should be committed to the Raymond Street Jail.

When Mr. Wernberg called at the court-house this afternoon to get the order, thinking it had been signed, he learned that it had been sent back to his office by the justice with the suggestion that the order be changed to read that Dike refuse to turn over the papers he should be committed to the Raymond Street Jail.

Mr. Wernberg will make the change suggested and then get after Dike. Justice Gaynor handed down another decision in the Shrivley muddle to-day. It was in connection with the habeas corpus proceedings of Falk and Goldfarb, who were arrested first by Col. Dike, released on habeas corpus writs and re-arrested by Guden.

Justice Gaynor says that the men cannot be held by both sheriffs, that one or the other of the county officials is liable for damages for the arrests.

"Both of the sheriffs," said Justice Gaynor, "are making arrests greatly to the annoyance of the courts and the public. This court has decided that Charles Guden is Sheriff in fact of Kings County, and it is hereby directed that Norman S. Dike release the two prisoners in question and transfer them to the custody of Charles Guden."

It is not known what Sheriff Guden will do with the prisoners. His opponent is in possession of the jail, and he has no place in which to incarcerate them.

Odell to Rush Legal Proceedings.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 24.—It was stated at the executive chamber to-day that the appeal from the decision of Justice Gaynor in the Sheriff Guden case would be rushed through the courts with all speed possible. It is expected that it will be presented to the Appellate Division within two weeks. The Governor is conferring with Attorney-General Davies on the matter this afternoon.

KILLED BROTHER WHILE GUNNING.

WILLIAM DOERFLINGER WAS HANDING OSCAR A GUN.

Overcome by Grief at Accident, He then Tried to Shoot Himself.

Oscar Doerflinger, of No. 36 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, was accidentally shot and killed by his brother William, at Huntington, L. I., last night.

The young men were inseparable companions and William is a most insane from grief.

The Doerflinger family has a summer home at Huntington. Oscar and William went down there yesterday to hunt. They spent the day on the water and it was dark when they drew their boat up to the landing in front of their residence.

Oscar was the first to leave the boat. He pulled it up on the beach and then reached for a loaded gun, which was handed to him by his brother.

In some manner unexplainable by William, the gun slipped, struck the side of Oscar's head and penetrated his brain.

Oscar Doerflinger was twenty-six. He lived with William and his mother. The Doerflinger family is prominent socially in Brooklyn. Oscar was a member of Troop C and of some of the best Brooklyn clubs.

He was graduated from Brooklyn Polytechnic at the age of twenty and one year later was chosen from forty applicants to fill the position of chief chemist at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard, which position he occupied at the time of his death.

Justice Gaynor says that the men cannot be held by both sheriffs, that one or the other of the county officials is liable for damages for the arrests.

"Both of the sheriffs," said Justice Gaynor, "are making arrests greatly to the annoyance of the courts and the public. This court has decided that Charles Guden is Sheriff in fact of Kings County, and it is hereby directed that Norman S. Dike release the two prisoners in question and transfer them to the custody of Charles Guden."

"OUT OF SORTS"

That's the Way You Feel When Your Digestion Is Out of Order.

This printer is "out of sorts." He's out of some of the letters needed to set this paragraph and it has been necessary for him to turn other letters upside down, to take their places, which accounts for the black spaces in some of the words.

A Message of Interest and Value to All Who Are "Out of Sorts."

When the printer is "out of sorts" the proof appears "dirty" or imperfect. When one's stomach gets "out of sorts" and digestion is faulty it makes temper, comfort and health, makes life seem incomplete, imperfect and unsatisfactory as a printer's "out of sorts" proof sheet.

The stomach is a laboratory wherein is prepared elements suitable for the nourishment and renewal of every structure of the body. If it is "out of sorts" and gives down, poorly prepared material instead of nutritious "chyle" the imperfect material will correspond to the letters that the printer has placed upside down and appear as blotches and deficiencies on the face of life.

If to think only things is nearly as bad as to say or act them, and the Recording Angel keeps tab on our thoughts, what a "dirty" record must appear in the "book of life" against the one whose stomach is frequently "out of sorts" and whose life of nutrition thus necessarily becomes such as to keep mind and body irritable and upset.

The efforts of the skin to excrete, or throw out of the system, uric acid or ill-prepared nutritional elements furnished by a stomach that is "out of sorts" frequently results in a rash of pimples and blotches fully as unsightly as the impure of the upside-down letters of the "out of sorts" print.

The best remedy for a stomach that has been able to devise to keep the stomach from getting "out of sorts" or to right it when it has been allowed to get that way is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They give tone and vigor to the digestive organs, as they will sort the material offered them and excrete from it a type of chyle that will build up tissues fair and clean as a perfect print from one whose case is never "out of sorts."

Chyle is digested food ready to be converted into blood. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets insure good digestion. Good food and vigorous digestion provide perfect chyle. Good chyle makes sure, rich blood, good nutritious blood builds bodily tissues that are firm, sound and free from defects as the full-case printer's perfect proof.

Diseases are blotches on the fair page of life. A very large share of diseases can be traced to the stomach being "out of sorts." "Nine-tenths of all diseases," said Abernathy, the great English physician, "come from the stomach." Dr. Forthright, another English physician of world-wide repute, once declared, "out of sorts" ten men you meet on the street, seven have stomach trouble of one kind or another.

Health of which, perfect digestion is the indispensable cause. Often there are none of the most prominent symptoms of dyspepsia such as distress after eating, heartburn, gas, bloating, belching of gas, etc., but there are other symptoms that may be real signs of dyspepsia but are not usually attributed to it by the sufferer, among which may be mentioned general nervousness and depression, tired, rundown, played-out, "out of sorts" feelings that cannot be accounted for.

headaches, oppression about the heart, bad complexion, pimples, blotches, boils, dizziness, spells before the eyes, etc. Let the sufferer take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and these symptoms will disappear, showing plainly that they were due to the stomach being "out of sorts."

Mr. Thomas Seale, Mayfield, Cal., says: "Have used and recommend Stuart's Tablets because there is nothing like them to keep the stomach right."

Mr. E. J. Davis, of Hampton, Va., says: "I suffered five years from dyspepsia, but in two months I got more benefit from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets than in five years of the doctor's treatment."

Mrs. E. M. Faith of Bydla Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case. I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them, I should have been at rest by this time."

Phil Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia pills have worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia, but am now entirely cured, and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure all kinds of dyspepsia, therefore they bring relief to all the varied symptoms that are characteristic of dyspepsia. To try them, they can be obtained of their merits. They can be bought at any drug store for 50 cents, a box of six for $2.50.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold in all parts of the world. They are the only tablets that cure dyspepsia. They are the only tablets that give tone and vigor to the digestive organs. They are the only tablets that make life seem complete, perfect and satisfactory as a printer's perfect proof.

FLEISCHMANN BABY VIES WITH NEIGHBOR'S PIANO.

Mrs. Humphrey Thinks Her Fine Music Is Being Handicapped.

Everything went lovely in the apartment-house, No. 19 West Twenty-sixth street, until an upright piano and a new baby moved in simultaneously.

Although that was only four weeks ago, a general alarm has already been sent out to the Police and Health Departments.

The baby is the apple of the eye of Joseph Fleischmann, the Broadway florist, and also of course of Mrs. Fleischmann.

The piano, an innocent-looking instrument with an oak case, is the property of Mrs. Humphreys, wife of Joseph Humphreys, who is associated in business with Mr. Freshman.

On the first floor are the Humphreys and the piano; on the second floor the Fleischmanns and the baby.

"Let them complain to the police if they want to," said Mrs. Humphrey to Mrs. Fleischmann's View.

"She just plays that piano for spite," said Mrs. Fleischmann, "and she won't play anything but scales. I don't have anything to do with her. Never saw her, hardly, until to-day, when she went flouncing past me on the stairs."

"If she could play anything I wouldn't care. I don't want to stand up all day, and then she begins to bang on that old box until it sounds like a boiler factory."

"Do you throw bottles and pans?" "Yes," answered Mrs. Fleischmann, "bravely. 'Who wouldn't? But it doesn't do any good."

A faint cry came down the shaft. Then was heard a wailing cry. Then was heard a wailing cry. Then was heard a wailing cry.

The Congressmen came at the request of the President who desired that they shall hear from Gen. Wood a clear and full statement of the condition of affairs in Cuba.

The Congressmen mentioned are among the opponents to tariff concessions to Cuba, and the President. It is understood, hopes they may see their way clear to joining with the other Republicans of the House in agreeing upon a policy that would have the unanimous support of the party.

Before going into conference Mr. Tawney stated that he would have a great many questions to ask Gen. Wood.
